Course title: Phonetics, Advanced II
Course code: RUSI 3022 RLPR
Programs offering course: Russian Language
Language of instruction: Russian
U.S. semester credits: 3
Contact hours: 45
Term: Spring 2020

Course Description

The course introduces students of Russian as foreign language to the foundations of Russian phonetics and intonation. It seeks to improve students’ competence in phonetics and intonation, and it focuses on the specific problems in Russian phonetics typically experienced by native speakers of English.

Learning Objectives

By completing this course, students will:

The main objective of this course is the acquisition of phonetic norms of modern Russian language and the development of listening skills. This includes mastering the peculiarities of the Russian speech, such as vowel reduction, the opposition of voiced/silent consonants, the stress accentuation in the word, as well as the knowledge of seven main intonation patterns of the Russian speech.

Course Prerequisites

This course is designated for students with basic knowledge of Russian. Students’ placement is also contingent upon a written and an oral exam.

Methods of Instruction

The coursework involves theoretical presentations of various topics in phonetics, as well as exercises in phonetic transcription, listening and imitation of speech samples, followed by the instructor’s correction of the student’s pronunciation, self-recording and listening of the recorded samples, creating dialogues at home and in the classroom. The following types of texts will be used as learning material: Russian tongue twisters, proverbs, quotes, poems, songs, samples of intonation patterns, dialogues, short texts, audio and video fragments.

Assessment and Final Grade

1. Homework 20%
2. Quizzes 30%
3. Final Exam 25%
4. Class Participation 25%
TOTAL 100%

Course Requirements

Homework

Doing homework is essential for your progress. Home assignments will typically include a text or a poem, which you will be asked to read at home several times, in order to master correct pronunciation.

Quizzes

15% each

Two quizzes will be given during the semester, which will test the students’ knowledge of vowel reduction, hard and soft consonants, Russian intonation construction and other aspects of Russian phonetics.

Final Exam

Final exam will include: 1) transcribing a sentence (non-familiar); 2) re-citing of a poem (chosen by the student); 4) analyzing a dialogue (non-familiar): find intonation construction and its center.

Class Participation

Students are expected to participate actively and intelligently in the classroom, to come to class having done all home assignments.

Class Attendance
Attendance is crucial for successful completion of the class. Students are allowed to have two unexcused absences for each course for the whole semester program. These allowed unexcused absences should be used for situations such as minor illnesses without a doctor’s note or personal situations that prevent the student from attending the class. Allowed unexcused absences should not be used in a planned way for travel or other activities.

Unexcused absences beyond the limit of two will lower a student’s grade by 2 points on the 100-point scale each. For example, if your overall score in the class is 90 (an equivalent of A-) and you have had three unexcused absences, your final score will be 88 (B+).

Course schedule is subject to change due to study tours, excursions, or local holidays. Final schedules will be included in the final syllabus provided to students on site.
