Course Requirements

Homework

Homework is due in class on the date noted on the weekly plan schedule and should be handed in at the beginning of each period. Students are expected to keep all handouts and organize them so that they can use them again in the future.

Midterm Exam

The midterm exam will be divided into two parts; one is written, and the other is an oral presentation on a topic assigned by the instructor.

Presentations
The students will be engaged in numerous communicative activities, which include frequent class presentations about different topics covered during the course.

Final Exam

At the end of the term, there will be a final exam that includes a set of articles and questions including text analysis.

Term's Project

Students will choose a topic of their interest and produce a research paper according to the guidelines provided by the instructor. In addition, students must present their paper to the class.

Participation

In order to get the most out of each class, it is very important that you are prepared, alert, and engaged during class activities. In-class activities are designed with the assumption that you already studied the vocabulary and grammar explanations at home and are prepared to activate that knowledge in class.

Attendance

It is essential that you attend every class in order to not fall behind. If you come to class late it will reduce your participation grade. If you are more than 20 minutes late for class, it will be considered an absence.

N.B. Course schedule is subject to change due to study tours, excursions, or local holidays. Final schedules will be included in the final syllabus provided to students on site.
