Course Requirements

Midterm Exam

Final Exam

Midterm and Final exams will be two 1.5-hour exams. Both will include grammar and oral parts. In the oral part, you will be expected to produce a 1-2 minute monologue on a topic studied during the course and be able to respond to the instructor’s questions on that topic. The written parts will include exercises on grammar topics studied during the semester.

Quizzes

Every week you will have a 15-minute quiz that will consist of the grammar topics and vocabulary covered during a week, in total 11 quizzes.
Homework

Homework assignments will be discussed in class, typically at the beginning of each class. I will collect your home assignments and grade your homework once a week.

Class Participation

Active participation is one of the keys to successful learning. Participation will be graded based on your effort to use Russian, your daily preparation for class, completion of all home assignments and the quality and quantity of your inputs in class discussions and group activities.

Students are strongly encouraged to use class time to practice the language therefore please try to avoid using English in class. If you do have any questions you can meet me after class or email me to make an appointment.

Attendance

Attendance is crucial for successful completion of the class. Students are allowed to have two unexcused absences for each course for the whole semester program. These allowed unexcused absences should be used for situations such as minor illnesses without a doctor's note or personal situations that prevent the student from attending the class. Allowed unexcused absences should not be used in a planned way for travel or other activities. Unexcused absences beyond the limit of two will lower a student’s grade by 2 points on the 100-point scale each. For example, if your overall score in the class is 90 (an equivalent of A-) and you have had three unexcused absences, your final score will be 88 (B+).

N.B. Course schedule is subject to change due to study tours, excursions, or local holidays. Final schedules will be included in the final syllabus provided to students on site.
