Course title: Modernizing Ancient Japan
Course code: HIST 3003 KYJA
Programs offering course: Ancient and Modern Japan
Language of instruction: English
U.S. semester credits: 3.00
Contact hours: 45.00
Term: Spring 2021

Course Description

In this course, students will have the opportunity to critically review the development and processes observed in regards to Japan’s role in the contemporary world setting. We will discuss Japan’s progression from a medieval hierarchy to a world class participant in the international stage among the fraternity of nations. Students will have the opportunity to review Japan’s role on the world stage during the turbulent war and post war times to the modern day.

Learning Objectives

By completing this course, students will:

- Describe and narrate the reasons that led to the decay and decline of late feudal Japan, and then analyze why modernization is often associated with Westernization in Japan
- Explain the attractiveness of modernity, modernization and their institutions to the Meiji Japanese (the road to "wealthy nation, strong army"), then apply this knowledge to understanding contemporary Japan
- Analyze the Meiji, Taisho and Showa Japanese impact and response factors to Western presence in East Asia (Meiji Japan’s internal consolidation and late imperialist catchup)
- Evaluate Heisei Japan’s regional and global roles, and analyze its successes and failures in diplomacy

Course Prerequisites

Course Requirements

Journal

You will be expected to post a short journal entry of 125 to 150 words to the online discussion group by 11:59pm about the readings assigned that day. You must also respond to at least two posts made by two different classmates to generate discussion online. These posts and responses will aid in the in-class discussion to be held the following day.
Presentation

You will perform an in-class presentation on a topic of your choosing, which relates to materials of the course. The presentation should not exceed 15 minutes. Depending on class enrollment you will conduct your research either individually or as a group. You must submit a proposal and have your topic approved by the instructor by Week 6. The proposal should be 750 to 1000 words and include (1) Topic you will present on; (2) How it is relevant to the course; (3) The critical viewpoints that you hope to discover through research and share with the class; and (4) An outline of how your presentation will be structured. Depending on the nature of their project, students may be required to use out-of-class time to make field visits, or to explore library and other resources. Students will be advised on their project proposal in terms of how to organize such out-of-class work.

Critical Essays (x2)

You will complete two critical essays of 1000 to 1200 words each. Your essays must analyze key concepts explored in class, and must follow conventions of academic writing. Each essay is worth 10% of your grade.

Final Exam

You will write short essays in answer to three questions prompted by the instructor. Each answer must be 500 to 600 words (total word count of 1500 to 1800 words). Your answers must demonstrate sufficient understanding of key concepts explored in class and must follow conventions of academic writing.

Class Participation

You are expected to follow CIEE’s attendance and participation policies as outlined in the CIEE Academic Manual for students.

Attendance
