Course title: Catalonia and Spain Through the Arts (Spanish)
Course code: AHIS 3001 BASP (SPAN)
Programs offering course: Business and Culture, Economics and Culture, Global Architecture and Design, Liberal Arts
Language of instruction: Spanish
U.S. semester credits: 3.00
Contact hours: 45.00
Term: Spring 2021

Course Description

This course has been designed to provide knowledge about Catalan and Spanish culture within the context of art history. During this course students will develop a sense of critical thinking by describing, analyzing and interpreting Spanish and Catalan artworks within their historical context and paying close attention to the evolution of the arts within a European context. Students will learn to compare, approach and ponder upon masterpieces and artists from multiple backgrounds and historical events. The students will comprehend and appraise the evolution of the different artistic movements and styles produced in Catalonia and Spain. Highlighted historical periods and events will be addressed through the eyes of privileged artistic observers and interpreters.

Learning Objectives

By completing this course, students will:

- Identify and analyze masterpieces from the most important periods and styles of Catalan and Spanish art.
- Relate the works studied to their historical, economic and cultural context.
- Assess the works studied not only at a local level but also in the context of world art history.
- Develop visual projects that demonstrate understanding of concepts and stylistic features studied in class.
- Produce a scholarly paper on a specific art topic based on an in-depth research project.

Course Prerequisites

4 semesters of college-level Spanish (or equivalent).

Methods of Instruction

The course is structured in both lectures and on-site classes. Lecture classes will be conducted by the professor, but students are expected to participate (class debates). The on-site classes are field studies to places relevant to the course content.

Assessment and Final Grade

| 1. Exams          | 40% |
| 2. Assignments    | 50% |
| 3. Class Participation | 10% |
| TOTAL         | 100% |

Course Requirements

Exams

20% midterm, 20% final exam

Students must write two exams (a midterm and a final). Both exams will consist in a combination of test, short questions and essay questions on readings and on course content.

Assignments

a. Selfie video tour: 05%
b. Visual Essay: 05%

c. Oral presentation: 10%

d. Readings and homework
   (10 tasks, 1% each): 10%

e. Research project: 20%

Students will complete:

One selfie video project (5%)

Students must create a video of 2-3 minutes length, taken in front of a monument in Barcelona. The goal of this task is for students to explain a local monument to an “average American public”. Students must describe and analyze all the aspects of the monument, using 2 analogies with cultural artifacts of the American culture. In the explanation, they will justify the selection of these two analogies.

One visual essay (5%)

One of the most important skills for the student of Art History is the ability to make connections between different objects. Throughout the course, students will use the camera to draw parallels between the artworks they encounter, compiling 1 visual essay. Essay may take the shape of a https://exposure.co/ site, which will contain the student’s own photographs of artworks, accompanied by text.

Each essay will contain 15 photographs with a clear connection to the topic. The essay will have a title and a header caption that presents and examines the topic and a conclusion at the end. Each individual image will be captioned with 2-3 sentences that analyze it in connection with the topic.

One oral presentation (10%)

Students must perform 1 oral presentation. It will be about a topic (given by the professor during the first two classes) that will be presented to the classmates as an explanation of a subject in connection with the teaching plan. These presentations should have a length of about 10 minutes and be visualized with a PowerPoint or similar. They will be given at different dates specified & explained in the syllabus. The content of these presentations will be guided by the professor who will post on Canvas the questions that the students may cover in a thoughtful and in-depth way.

Readings and homework (10%)

Students must read 8 articles (provided by the professor) and watch 2 movies and complete a task related to them before the class. These articles or movies will be related to the content of the class, so no late homework will be admitted.

Research project (20%)

Students will complete a research project concerning a specific subject on art. The project will consist of an in-depth and comparative research in which students will explore the topic mainly using scholarly sources, performing a written document that will be submitted at the end of the semester.

The research project consists of 3 stages:

- Phase 1: Topic + Outline with bibliography. Students will select a topic from a list provided by the professor. If a student would like to work on a topic not on the list, they must first approach the professor for approval. Students will also submit an outline of their research together with their bibliography choice.
- Phase 2: Draft. Students will submit a draft of the research project which will be discussed by other students during the class
- Phase 3: Submission of the paper. Students must submit their paper to the professor the day of the poster presentations, before the class starts.

Additionally, students will give a three-minute presentation on their chosen subject. All presentations will take place on the last class before the final exam.

Format: The project will adopt the format of a poster. It will be submitted on Canvas in a pdf file size A1 (59.4 x 84.1 cm / 23.4 x 33.1 inch.). Images, charts, diagrams or any other visual resources useful for the research will be combined with the text on the poster. This must be visually appealing and well structured.

Bibliography: At least 6 scholarly sources must be used and listed in the bibliography. Students must consistently use a standard citation style of their choice (for instance, MLA, APA or Chicago. Wikipedia, instructor’s materials, touristic and or personal websites and personal blogs are useful to get a first idea of the artwork, but they are not reliable sources and will not be accepted as references).

Class Participation

Participation is valued as meaningful contribution in the digital and tangible classroom, utilizing the resources and materials presented to students as part of the course. Meaningful contribution requires students to be prepared in advance of each class session and to have regular attendance. Students must clearly demonstrate they have engaged with the materials as directed, for example, through classroom discussions, online discussion boards, peer-to-peer feedback (after presentations), interaction with guest speakers, and attentiveness on co-curricular and outside-of-classroom activities.

Attendance

Regular class attendance is required throughout the program, and all absences will result in a lower participation grade for any affected CIEE course. Due to the intensive schedules for short-term programs, absences that constitute more than 10% of the total course will result in a written warning.

Students who transfer from one CIEE class to another during the add/drop period will not be considered absent from the first session(s) of their new class, provided they were marked present for the first session(s) of their original class. Otherwise, the absence(s) from the original class carry over to the new class and count against the grade in that class.

For CIEE classes, excessively tardy (over 15 minutes late) students must be marked absent. Attendance policies also apply to any required co-curricular class excursion or event, as well as to Internship, Service Learning, or required field placement. Students who miss class for personal travel, including unforeseen delays that arise as a result of personal travel, will be marked as absent. No make-up or re-sit opportunity will be provided.

Attendance policies also apply to any required class excursion, with the exception that some class excursions cannot accommodate any tardiness, and students risk being marked as absent if they fail to be present at the appointed time.

Absences will lead to the following penalties:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Percentage of Total Course Hours Missed</th>
<th>Minimum Penalty</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Up to 10%</td>
<td>Participation graded as per class requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10 – 20%</td>
<td>Participation graded as per class requirements; grade penalty &amp; written warning</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 20%</td>
<td>Automatic course failure, and possible expulsion</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

N.B. Course schedule is subject to change due to study tours, excursions, or local holidays. Final schedules will be included in the final syllabus provided to students on site.
