Programs offering course: Language and Culture
Language of instruction: Portuguese
U.S. semester credits: 3.00
Contact hours: 45.00
Term: Spring 2021

Course Description
The Portuguese course has an emphasis on the development of communicative skills (speaking, listening, reading, and writing) and complex grammatical structures. The course also addresses aspects of the Portuguese culture, history, literature and way of life.

Learning Objectives
By completing this course, students will:

- Analyze and critique a wide range of demanding, long texts, with implicit meaning.
- Produce speech fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions and allowing regular interaction with native speakers without strain for either party.
- Produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organizational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.
- Argue on a given topic, examining the advantages and disadvantages of various aspects.
- Distinguish the most relevant aspects of Portuguese history and literature.

Course Prerequisites
Students are given a placement test on-site.

Methods of Instruction
Coursebook, handouts given in class, power point, internet, audio files, image files, video files.

Assessment and Final Grade
1. Homework Assignments 15%
2. Group Work 20%
3. Oral Presentation 20%
4. Final Exam 25%
5. Class Participation 20%
Total 100%

Course Requirements
Homework Assignments
After every session, students will be asked to do homework about what was covered in class, to systematize rules and reinforce reading and writing skills. Completed homework should always be submitted in the following class. Further homework assignment instructions will be given in class.

Group Work
Students will work in pairs or small groups and they will simulate day life situations. All the dialogues will be presented and discussed in class.

Oral Presentation
Students will make an oral presentation of 10 minutes about a subject of Portuguese culture.
The evaluation parameters include: language skills (syntax, grammar, pronunciation, fluency) and content (quality and structure of contents).

Final Exam

The final exam is a written exam and takes place in the last day of the course. The test is divided in 4 groups: group I - text reading and comprehension, group II-IV – writing.

Class Participation

Students should participate making use of the grammar and vocabulary. They will be asked to orally simulate day life situations/dialogues and to argue on a specific subject.

Attendance

CIEE students are required to attend all classes. Absences are not allowed. If you are sick, you must inform your professor and provide a doctor's note to the Resident Director. Half a point will be subtracted to your final grade if you miss 5 hours of classes. A point will be subtracted to your final grade if you miss 6 hours of classes. Two points will be subtracted to your final grade if you miss 7 hours of classes. You will fail the course if you miss more than 7 hours of classes.

Note: Course schedule is subject to change due to study tours, excursions, or local holidays. Final schedules will be included in the final syllabus provided to students on site.
