Course title:	Intermediate Thai I
Course code:	THAI 2001 TKKU
Programs offering course:	Khon Kaen DG
Language of instruction:	Thai
U.S. semester credits:	3
Contact hours:	65
Term:	Fall 2020

Learning Objectives

By completing this course, students will:

- Understand, make basic requests, and meet daily needs by communicating in Thai
- Be able to describe, narrate, and ask/answer questions in Thai about a variety of topics related to family, daily activities, eating, and traveling.
- Feel comfortable using Thai language in any setting
- Be able to read and write at both casual and academic levels
- Learn and use the 'Issue-Based' language as a tool to discuss with and understand villagers who are affected by various social and environmental issues

In order to determine how well students demonstrate competency in learning Thai on this program, students will have an oral proficiency test based on the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) guidelines twice during the semester. The aim of this assessment is to help students reflect on their progress in Thai and know their language proficiency level in the event of further Thai study.

The format of testing will be a 15-20 minute response to visual prompts and simulated situations. It will be an online test which allows the students enough time to complete the task without intervention. The student's performance will be compared to the criteria outlined in the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines 2012 – Speaking as well as the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. The comparison of ACTFL and ILR proficiency scales are:

ILR Scale	ACTFL Scale	Definition
5	Distinguished	Able to use language skillfully, and with accuracy, efficiency, and effectiveness
4	Superior	Able to communicate with accuracy and fluency in order to participate fully and effectively in conversations on a variety of topics in formal and informal settings from both concrete and abstract perspectives
3	Advanced - High	Able to discuss some topics abstractly, especially those relating to their particular interests and special fields of expertise, but in general, they are more comfortable discussing a variety of topics concretely
	Advanced - Mid	Able to contribute to conversations on a variety of familiar topics, dealt with concretely, with much accuracy, clarity and precision, and they convey their intended message without misrepresentation or confusion
	Advanced - Low	Able to contribute to the conversation with sufficient accuracy, clarity, and precision to convey their intended message without misrepresentation or confusion
2	Intermediate - High	Able to handle successfully uncomplicated tasks and social situations requiring an exchange of basic information related to their work, school, recreation, particular interests, and areas of competence
	Intermediate - Mid	Able to handle successfully a variety of uncomplicated communicative tasks in straightforward social situations. But conversation is generally limited to those predictable and concrete exchanges necessary for survival in the target culture
	Intermediate - Low	Able to handle successfully a limited number of uncomplicated communicative tasks by communicating with the language in straightforward social situations
1	Novice - High	Able to respond to simple, direct questions or requests for information. They are also able to ask a few formulaic questions
	Novice - Mid	Able to communicate minimally by using a number of isolated words and memorized phrases limited by the particular context in which the language has been learned
	Novice - Low	Have no real functional ability and, because of their pronunciation, may be unintelligible
